

PROMOTIONS!

We are delighted to announce that Amit Patel and Emma Kirton have been promoted to audit managers.

Amit Patel and Emma Kirton

A graduate from Warwick University, Amit joined us in 2001 and since qualifying in 2004 has worked as an audit senior.

Amit, whose interests include, keeping fit and travelling, said “I am delighted that the partners have given me this opportunity and I am looking forward to the challenge. As part of a team I have developed good business relationships with a very diverse range of clients”.

Emma, a Loughborough University graduate, has been working as an audit senior with us since qualifying in 2007. Her new role will involve advising our solicitor clients as well as continuing to work with our audit clients. Emma has been responsible for organising many of the firm’s charity events and away from the office, she likes travelling, walking and swimming.

“Working for Thomas May has been varied and challenging and I will continue to enjoy helping a variety of clients and businesses” said Emma.
