

NEW PARTNER APPOINTMENT

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Paul Hancock as a partner with effect from 1st April 2009.

Paul Hancock

Paul has been instrumental in developing the firm's Business Services Department and offers advice to SME's, including new and growing businesses ranging from sole traders and partnerships to limited companies.

David Radford commented "the partners are delighted that Paul has accepted our invitation to join the partnership and his appointment reinforces the firm's commitment to provide continuity at the highest level"

Paul, whose interests include playing basketball, golf and keeping fit at the gym, said "I am very pleased to be given this opportunity and am very appreciative of the efforts of the firm's partners and staff who have made such a positive contribution to my role over the years".
