

THOMAS MAY & CO

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS
BUSINESS AND TAX ADVISERS

NON - DOMS – THE NEW RULES

SEMINAR

We will be hosting a breakfast seminar at Devonshire Place, 78 London Road, Leicester, on Thursday 6 November 2008.

The purpose of this seminar is to provide an overview of the changes in tax affecting UK Resident non-domiciled individuals. We will also be covering the pension options available when emigrating from the UK.

The topics to be covered will include:

- Residence
- IHT opportunities for non-doms
- Opportunities for using offshore bonds to defer tax
- Qualifying Recognised Overseas Pension Schemes (QROPS)

This seminar will be presented by investment and pension specialists who will update you on these subjects and answer any questions that you may have.

The event, which begins with breakfast at 8.00am and runs until 9.45am, has limited places available. If you wish to attend, please contact Lynda Gaskell on 0116 2335959 or e-mail: lyndagaskell@thomasmay.co.uk.